The Yearly Blessing of Home

PASTOR DAN GERRIETTS
SENIOR PASTOR

On the first day of Epiphany (January 6), it's customary in many homes across the world to mark the support above the front door with symbols of blessing. Our family has done this in the past and found it to be a meaningful way to usher in the new year!
Mark the front door (on the inside frame) with these symbols: the date, abbreviation of the phrase Christus Mansionem Benedicat ("Christ bless this home" - which are also the initials of traditional names for the Magi - Casper, Melchior, and Balthasar), and four crosses (representing the four seasons).
Order the symbols in the following way:
20 + C + M + B + 24

Be as artistic and creative as you want. Use markers or do a collage on a piece of cardboard! The marking can also be made with chalk on darker wood for those who like to keep things simple.

You may choose to gather your household by the door and pray for the coming year, for your neighbors, or for all who will enter your house. For a simple liturgy you can follow, check out the Epiphany Home Blessing on our webpage: trinity-mc.org/epiphany-home-blessing. God's joy and blessing be upon your house this New Year! And may God bless us all so that we might be a blessing to others.
In Christ,
Pastor Dan Gerrietts

The Chosen

Join Pastor Dan Gerrietts for a viewing and discussion of The Chosen, a groundbreaking historical drama based on the life of Jesus Christ, seen through the eyes of those who knew him. Set against the backdrop of Roman oppression in first-century Israel, the show shares an authentic and intimate look at Jesus' revolutionary life and teachings. Some locations and timelines have been combined or condensed, and backstories have been added; however, the Biblical historical context and artistic imagination are designed to support the truth and intention of the scriptures. It is based on the true stories of the Gospels of Jesus Christ. This class will be held in the Fellowship Hall.

Trinity Choir

Trinity's choir is open to all vocalists, high school age & older. Choir practice is held in the Choir Room.

Young Women's Group

TRINITY'S PHONE VISITATION MINISTRY

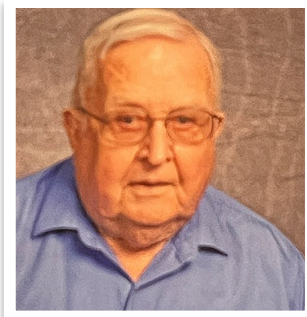
BY MICHELLE MURRAY

When Trinity's members move away or aren't able to make it to Trinity anymore for various reasons, there's a ministry developed specifically to reach out to them. Just like the old AT & T slogan, "Reach out and touch someone," Trinity volunteers are calling people who would like to stay in touch with things going on at church…and beyond.

Once a month, a Trinity volunteer calls a person who has agreed (or requested) to be on the call list. Sometimes the conversation involves what is happening at Trinity; sometimes the two people end up chatting about life in general. A connection is made through a simple phone call, and that is priceless.

Dan Billings is one of the volunteers who calls three people each month. He likes to call mid-month and talks to one person from out-of-state and two from in or near Mason City. Billings said, "I've been doing this at least a couple years. They like me to call and get a little information about Mason City and what's been going on. At the end of each conversation, I tell them I'll call back each month if they want me to, and they always do!"

Ordale Frandle



One person Billings speaks to monthly is Ordale Frandle from Atchison, Kansas. Frandle used to live in Mason City and still has many friends here. He said, "I started going to Trinity in 1960, switched and went to Clear Lake for a few years, and then came back." He moved to Kansas because his son lives there and he no longer has family living in Mason City. His son helps take care of him and Frandle appreciates seeing him every other day instead of only a couple times a year. "We shoot the breeze in the garage," Frandle laughed.

Although Kansas seems to agree with Frandle, being 350 miles away from Mason City makes him miss it a little. He said he really enjoys the conversations he has with Dan Billings, especially because "Dan knows a lot of the people I do!" They never knew each other before this phone ministry, but they have been lucky enough to meet face-to-face a couple of times when Frandle came back to Mason City during the summer. That trek used to occur twice each summer, "but time gets away now that I'm 88," Frandle said. "I still drive, though! I need my morning coffee…except I don't have coffee anymore. I drink hot tea!"

One thing about Trinity that Frandle really enjoyed when he was here was the outside service in the summer. He also appreciated Pastor Kathy so much when she was here. He shared, "Dan and I talk about most everything…how church is going…and what Pastor Kathy is doing!"

Mason City and Trinity Lutheran Church will always hold a special place in his heart. Frandle said, "When I farmed, I lived in one place. When I quit farming, I moved all over. I've lived in Arizona, Florida, Texas and Wisconsin. I like Iowa the best. I'm an 'Iowegian!'"

Even in Kansas, Frandle feels very close to home. "This is kind of funny," he explained. "I live in a place called 'Trinity Place,' and right next door is the Trinity Lutheran Church!" For an "Iowegian" who lives in Trinity Place, Trinity's Visitation Ministry has made an impactful connection…and will continue doing so.

Colleen Dutcher

This 62-year member of Trinity also had a "lovely visit" from a Trinity volunteer caller just last week. A long-time resident of Mason City, Dutcher now lives in Mesa, AZ with her family. "We just started chatting about Trinity from the time I answered the phone," Colleen Dutcher said. "It's so nice Trinity continues to keep in touch with me. I really appreciate being asked about how I'm doing and how I'm getting along."

Dutcher talked about her upcoming 96th birthday in late December…and taking almost four weeks to get her Christmas cards written. Just finished with her 102nd Christmas card, she said, "When you've lived almost 96 years…I have a lot of friends!" Several Trinity members are her long-time friends and she talked about receiving calls, cards and notes from many of them on a regular basis.

Marge Baack is one of those people who talks to Dutcher every week, even letting her know when the Iowa Hawkeyes are playing. With her reminder last weekend, Dutcher said she watched games from 2:30 until 6:30 PM on the Big 10 channel in her family's great room. She is an avid fan of basketball, Caitlin Clark, and people in general. "I'm so blessed to be feeling so good and so well-cared-for by my family!" she exclaimed. "I thank the Lord! For some reason, He's keeping me going!"

One thing she appreciates in her Arizona life is being able to watch Trinity's church services on YouTube. Between that and the connections she makes almost daily with so many Trinity members, Dutcher is certainly an example of "Once a Trinity member, always a Trinity member!" Sharing stories of how it feels to be almost 96, having a birthday so close to Christmas, and staying in touch with friends (and even three of her first kindergarten students who she taught in her 2nd year of teaching!), Dutcher said, "You just never know what Crazy Colleen will do!" Thanks to Trinity's phone ministry for being "wonderful," according to "Crazy Colleen!"†

Trinity's Rotating Art Exhibit

Paul Ward is a self-taught watercolorist from Plymouth, Iowa. He started painting with watercolor in 1974. He enjoys painting landscapes, farms, and wildlife.

His lifelong hobby greatly influenced his daughter, Ashley (Ward) Morrison. Ashley got her Bachelor's Degree in Art and Design in 2004 but just started with watercolor and ink in 2021. Her art has no collective theme, but children's illustration themes have recently inspired her. Stop by the church to view these two artists' work on exhibit now through the end of March 2024!

VISIO DIVINA

Tuesday January 30, 2024 / 10:00 AM / MacNider Museum
303 2nd St. SE, Mason City

Visio Divina, or "sacred seeing," is an ancient form of Christian prayer in which we allow our hearts and imaginations to enter into an image in silence to see what God might have to say to us. We will meet at the MacNider Art Museum, where you will be invited to choose one painting or sculpture that seems to catch your eye. You will then spend time gazing at that one object and reflect on questions or the personal meaning it evokes in you. Come and encounter the Divine through visual art.
