The Baptism of our Lord

Saturday, January 10, 2026 - 5:00 PM

Sunday, January 11, 2026 - 9:00 AM with Livestream / KCMR 97.9

Why was Jesus baptized? Christians have wrestled with this for centuries. If baptism is about repentance and the cleansing of sin, and Jesus was without sin, then why did he need to be baptized?

Some point to Jesus' baptism as his first miracle - the Son of God humbling himself enough to be baptized by John. Jesus has no sins to be forgiven. Yet he aligns himself with us, recognizing our needs and aligning with us, to save us. Jesus embraces and unites himself with us in baptism, foreshadowing his saving act on the cross.

BAPTISM TODAY

Our Mission We are called to share God's healing love through Christ's forgiveness and our personal servanthood.

Prelude

Welcome

Confession and Forgiveness

P Blessed be the holy Trinity, one God who enters the waters with us and saves us in love.

C Amen.

P Let us confess our sin in the presence of God, and of one another.

Gracious God,

C you had no sin, yet you chose to stand with us.

P You entered the waters in humility,

C yet we resist repentance and change.

P You unite yourself with the broken,

C yet we turn away from those in need. Forgive us, O God, and draw us back into your mercy.

P Hear the good news: Jesus entered the waters for our sake and united himself with us on the cross. In him, your sins are forgiven.

C Thanks be to God. Amen.

*Gathering Hymn

We Shall Gather at the River

ELW 423

*Greeting

P Welcome in the name of Christ.

God's grace, mercy and peace be with you.

C And also with you.

*Prayer of the Day

P Holy God, you sent your Son into the waters of baptism, not because he needed forgiveness, but because we did, choosing to stand with us in humility and love. Wash us in your grace, claim us as your beloved children, and lead us to live for the sake of others, through Jesus Christ our Savior and Lord. Amen.

First Reading: Isaiah 42:1-9

- <sup>1</sup> Here is my servant, whom I uphold,
my chosen, in whom my soul delights;
I have put my spirit upon him;
he will bring forth justice to the nations.
- <sup>2</sup> He will not cry out or lift up his voice
or make it heard in the street;
- <sup>3</sup> a bruised reed he will not break,
and a dimly burning wick he will not quench;
he will faithfully bring forth justice.
- <sup>4</sup> He will not grow faint or be crushed
until he has established justice in the earth,
and the coastlands wait for his teaching.
- <sup>5</sup> Thus says God, the LORD,
who created the heavens and stretched them out,
who spread out the earth and what comes from it,
who gives breath to the people upon it
and spirit to those who walk in it:
- <sup>6</sup> I am the LORD; I have called you in righteousness;
I have taken you by the hand and kept you;
I have given you as a covenant to the people,
a light to the nations,
- <sup>7</sup> to open the eyes that are blind,
to bring out the prisoners from the dungeon,
from the prison those who sit in darkness.
- <sup>8</sup> I am the LORD; that is my name;
my glory I give to no other,
nor my praise to idols.
- <sup>9</sup> See, the former things have come to pass,
and new things I now declare;
before they spring forth,
I tell you of them.

L The word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

Second Reading: Acts 10:34-43

<sup>34</sup>Then Peter began to speak to them: “I truly understand that God shows no partiality, <sup>35</sup>but in every people anyone who fears him and practices righteousness is acceptable to him. <sup>36</sup>You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ—he is Lord of all. <sup>37</sup>That message spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John announced: <sup>38</sup>how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power; how he went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. <sup>39</sup>We are witnesses to all that he did both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree, <sup>40</sup>but God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear, <sup>41</sup>not to all the people but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses and who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. <sup>42</sup>He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead. <sup>43</sup>All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name.”

*Gospel Acclamation

ELW pg. 142

GOSPEL: Matthew 3:13-17

P The Holy Gospel according to Matthew, the third chapter.

C Glory to You, O Lord.

<sup>13</sup> Then Jesus came from Galilee to John at the Jordan, to be baptized by him. <sup>14</sup> John would have prevented him, saying, "I need to be baptized by you, and do you come to me?" <sup>15</sup> But Jesus answered him, "Let it be so now, for it is proper for us in this way to fulfill all righteousness." Then he consented. <sup>16</sup> And when Jesus had been baptized, just as he came up from the water, suddenly the heavens were opened to him and he saw God's Spirit descending like a dove and alighting on him. <sup>17</sup> And a voice from the heavens said, "This is my Son, the Beloved, with whom I am well pleased."

Connie Bleile, director of assisted living with Good Shepherd Inc., has been blessed to work with resilient individuals who inspire her to share stories, keeping our faith in humanity alive and well. A light lunch of soup and sandwich will be provided for a free will donation. Please sign up on the clipboard outside the office or call the church to get a head count for lunch.
