Wandering Heart: "And I Hope"

Throughout Lent, we have been focusing on the life and faith of one of Jesus' most famous disciples. In Peter, we see a person who is both steadfast and unsteady, a dear friend and a betrayer, a follower and a wanderer. In Peter, we often see ourselves - a very normal human trying to figure it all out—just like us. On this Easter, we might expect that, after denying Christ, Peter would cover in shame—or perhaps even run away in an attempt to leave his past behind him. Instead, when he hears the news from the women, he doesn't dismiss them like the other disciples. He gets up and runs to the tomb. When he peers into the empty tomb and sees the linen cloth, he is filled with awe. Even after the biggest failures, even after the worst case scenario has happened, can we run toward hope? Like Peter, will we keep going? Will we keep looking for God in our midst?

Welcome to Trinity! We are glad you're here. If you are new to Trinity Lutheran, please complete an informational card which can be found in the pews.

We love having small children in worship! Those needing a space to change or feed little ones are welcome to use the Child Care Room located next to the nursery. A unstaffed nursery is also available, located on the 2nd floor just outside the north sanctuary door (door under the stained glass window door).

Handicapped Seating is reserved in the pew located in front of the Technical booth.

Large print bulletins and listening devices are available from the ushers.

Activity Bags are available for children during worship. They are located in the narthex and at the front of the church. Please return them at the end of services.

Welcome

Confession and Forgiveness

P In the Gospel of Luke, the women come to the tomb, and to their surprise, instead of finding Jesus, they find angels. The angels tell the women, “Jesus is not here,” and when that answer is met with confusion, the angels say, “Remember what he told you.” Remember. It’s one of the words Jesus used at his last supper, and it’s one of the first words we hear at the empty tomb. Remember.

This call to remember is why we need the prayer of confession and these words of forgiveness every single week. It’s not enough to hear of God’s grace once.

We need to hear it over and over again, week after week.

We need to be reminded that God’s grace and mercy will never run out.

So friends, let us run to God like the women ran to the tomb.

Let us tell the truth of our lives so that once again we can be reminded that our God is a God of grace, mercy, and love.

Let us pray so that we can remember.

Join me in the prayer of confession:

P The stone is rolled away!

C We assume it is a mistake.

P The angels say, “He is not here!”

C We assume their news is fake.

P The women tell the story,

C but we do not want to hear it.

P Peter runs to the tomb,

C but we do not understand.

P Forgive us, God, for thinking an empty tomb is nothing more than a prank.

C Forgive us for seeing discarded burial cloths and still holding tight to death.

P Forgive us for pushing away reasons to hope when you are alive and well in the world.

C Teach us to see what you see.

P Unravel the threads of our unbelief.

C Amen.

P The angels tell the women, “Remember what Jesus told you.”
So, church, remember this:
You are seen.
You are forgiven.
You are held in God’s grace.
All of this is true.
Grace and mercy abound for you.
Remember this.
C Amen.

Gathering Hymn

Jesus Christ is Risen Today

ELW 365

Greeting

P Alleluia! Christ is risen!

C Christ is risen indeed! Alleluia!

P The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

C And also with you.

Prayer of the Day

P O God, you gave your only Son to suffer death on the cross for our redemption, and by his glorious resurrection you delivered us from the power of death.
Make us die every day to sin, that we may live with him forever in the joy of the resurrection, through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C Amen

Children’s Sermon

Pastor Dan Gerrietts

First Reading: Isaiah 25:6-9

L ⁶On this mountain the LORD of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of rich food, a feast of well-aged wines, of rich food filled with marrow, of well-aged wines strained clear.
⁷And he will destroy on this mountain the shroud that is cast over all peoples,
the sheet that is spread over all nations;
⁸he will swallow up death forever.
Then the Lord GOD will wipe away the tears from all faces, and the disgrace of his people he will take away from all the earth,
for the LORD has spoken.

⁹It will be said on that day,
Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, so that he might save us.
This is the LORD for whom we have waited;
let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

L The word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 15:1-11

L ¹Now I would remind you, brothers and sisters, of the good news that I proclaimed to you, which you in turn received, in which also you stand, ²through which also you are being saved, if you hold firmly to the message that I proclaimed to you—unless you have come to believe in vain.

³For I handed on to you as of first importance what I in turn had received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the scriptures, ⁴and that he was buried, and that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the scriptures, ⁵and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. ⁶Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers and sisters at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have died. ⁷Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. ⁸Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me. ⁹For I am the least of the apostles, unfit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. ¹⁰But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace toward me has not been in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them—though it was not I, but the grace of God that is with me. ¹¹Whether then it was I or they, so we proclaim and so you have come to believe.

L The word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

*Gospel Acclamation

ELW pg 124

The image shows two staves of musical notation for the Gospel Acclamation. The first staff is in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time, with a treble clef. It contains the melody for the first line of the text: "Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia,". The second staff is in G minor (two flats) and 4/4 time, with a treble clef. It contains the melody for the second line of the text: "al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia." The text is written below the notes, with hyphens indicating syllable placement.

P The Holy Gospel according to Luke the twenty-fourth chapter.

C Glory to You, O Lord.

Gospel: Luke 24:1-12

P ¹But on the first day of the week, at early dawn, they came to the tomb, taking the spices that they had prepared. ²They found the stone rolled away from the tomb, ³but when they went in, they did not find the body. ⁴While they were perplexed about this, suddenly two men in dazzling clothes stood beside them. ⁵The women were terrified and bowed their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, "Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here, but has risen. ⁶Remember how he told you, while he was still in Galilee, ⁷that the Son of Man must be handed over to sinners, and be crucified, and on the third day rise again." ⁸Then they remembered his words, ⁹and returning from the tomb, they told all this to the eleven and to all the rest. ¹⁰Now it was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the other women with them who told this to the apostles. ¹¹But these words seemed to them an idle tale, and they did not believe them. ¹²But Peter got up and ran to the tomb; stooping and looking in, he saw the linen cloths by themselves; then he went home, amazed at what had happened.

P The Gospel of the Lord.

C Praise to you, O Christ.

Hymn of the Day

Now All the Vault of Heaven Resounds

ELW 367

Nicene Creed

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation

he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the virgin Mary and became truly human.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Great Prayer of Thanksgiving/Prayer of the People

P God of today and tomorrow,
God of the garden and the tomb,
God of our faith and our doubt,
we are running toward you.
Like Peter on that Easter morning, we simply cannot stay away.
So with beating hearts and wide eyes, we have arrived in this sanctuary, bringing with us questions, hopes, joys, and concerns.
Hear these prayers as we draw closer to you.

P Lord in your mercy.

C Hear our prayer.

P God of the dawn, we start with our hopes:
Thank you for the gifts of this world that instill buoyancy in us.
Thank you for the curiosity of children,
for the sound of your people singing in unison,
for crowded tables and neighborly kindness,
for the sun after the rain,
the spring after the frost,
love after loss,
and faith after doubt.
Like Peter, we have countless reasons to hold onto hope.
Highest among them is the joy and promise of this day. Thank you for these holy breadcrumbs on the journey of faith.

P Lord in your mercy.

C Hear our prayer.

P However, before we found ourselves in the garden,
before the joy and the alleluias of this day,
we found ourselves at the foot of the cross.
So for the things that erode our hope, for the things that stitch doubt and fear into our hearts,
we ask for your comforting hand.
Wrap your arms around all who are still locked in that upper room.
Wrap your arms around all who cannot find healing after their longest night.
Wrap your arms around all who look for reasons to hope, but cannot find those breadcrumbs amidst reasons to grieve.

P Lord in your mercy.

C Hear our prayer.

P Holy God, like Peter, fan the flames of our faith.
Like Peter, invite us to step out of our boats.
And like Peter, use us to care for those in need, to tell your story,
and to build a better world.
We remember, and we believe.

P Lord in your mercy.

C Hear our prayer.

P So with awe-struck, wildly-beating, grateful hearts, we run toward you.
With feet in the garden and eyes on the cross,
we lift up our prayers—those spoken and those unspoken,
trusting in your mercy,
through Jesus Christ, our Lord.

C Amen

Peace

P The peace of the Lord be with you always.

C And also with you.

The ministers and congregation may greet one another in the name of the Lord.
