We are stronger together than we are on our own. We know this as individuals, created by God for relationships and community. We know how important friends, family and other connections are for health and resilience. The same is true for faith communities. We are stronger together. God uses our collective faith and gifts to do more than we can do as single congregations.

Trinity lives this out as part of the Northeastern Iowa Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. On June 6-7, the synod gathered in Cedar Falls for our biennial synod assembly, "Created to be Connected." Over 230 voting members worshipped together, heard reports, voted on synod mission goals (budget) and nominees for synod leadership positions, and approved a memorial calling churchwide organization to take actions to address the role Lutherans played in Indian Boarding Schools.

Other highlights included:

- Bishop Kevin Jones reporting the creation of a Mission Table to disburse up to $70,000 per year in grants to congregations developing new ministries
- Pastor Emily Harkins sharing stories from The Dwelling, a mission congregation she leads in Winston-Salem, N.C.
- Trinity gave over $365,000 to synod and churchwide ministries in 2023-24, supporting congregations, hunger/disaster relief and leadership development across the wider church.

Voting members from Trinity included Marge and Harlan Baack, Earl Kiefer, Sharon Lindgren, John and Sarah Swegle, Pastor Daniel Hanson and myself. Reflecting on the experience, they said:

It reminded me that we are part of something so much larger than our own congregation.

The church service and Communion was so inspiring, made us feel at home, and humbled.

In hearing Pastor Emily share about the Dwelling, I'm reminded of the Spirit's creative power...It reminded me of the Spirit's work in chaotic human experiences.

The opening worship at Fredsville Lutheran Church was inspiring with the theme, "Seeds and Soil." One can see that the Word of God sown in the Spirit dwells among them.

One of my takeaways is the ever-changing landscape within the wider church.... Even within our own Synod churches are having to adapt due to financial struggles. I think we (Trinity) are fortunate....we are open to new ideas and new ways to reach people in our community (as well as helping the wider church).

We are truly blessed with our Bishop and Synod staff!

Thanks be to God for our connections across the wider church!

Join us as we explore how God engages people through powerful moments of dialogue, decision, and divine direction. Each week, we will examine a different biblical character or moment where a conversation with God—spoken, implied, or lived out—shaped lives, communities, and futures.

Whether you're asking for guidance, wrestling with justice, or simply learning to listen, Conversations with God invites you into deeper relationship with the One who speaks into every season of life.

Welcome to Sunday School at Trinity

If you had fun at Day Camp/VBS, you'll enjoy what we do the rest of the year!

Summer

Spring

Autumn

Winter

Sunday School is the core of Trinity's Christian ministry. We meet each Sunday morning from 9:15-10:15 AM, fall through spring, in the Education Wing. Rally Sunday kicks off the 2025-26 year on September 7. Classes are provided for children age 3-High School. There is a children's sermon at both Sunday morning worship services (9:00 & 10:30 AM.) If you attend the 9 am service, your child will be dismissed to Sunday School after the children's sermon, or you can attend the 10:30 AM service as a family.

Age 3 – Grade 6 participate in Rotation Sunday School, which includes multiple venues for learning, including Art, Games and Theatre. Older youth delve deeper into the Bible and their faith during the Sunday School hour.

Question? Would you like to volunteer to help? Contact Director of Christian Education, Marty Greder; 641-423-0536 or marty.greder@trinity-mc.org.

Trinity Bible School/Day Camp 2025

Led by 4 awesome Riverside Bible Camp Counselors, Trinity presented CAPTIVATED, based on Psalm 121: 1-2. "I lift my eyes up to the mountains – where does my help come from? My help comes from the LORD, the Maker of heaven and earth." There were 11 preschoolers, 45 day campers, and 9 youth & adult helpers at Trinity June 9-12.

The Day Camp service project for the week was to bring items for the Women's & Children's Shelter. The young people this week brought 73 items they need the most.

Special thanks to Lisa Wulf, who led the preschool for the week, the helpers for all the age groups, and all who provided snacks and supplies. Thank you to Pastor Daniel, who spent his birthday traveling to Riverside in Story City and all the helpers who went with him. Thanks to Dani Vogel who helped with MS & HS night, plus sound for the week. Big thanks to Alyse Hesley & family who had the counselors for dinner and thanks to members of the Education Committee and Youth & Family representatives for hosting a walking-taco supper after Wednesday's closing celebration. A HUGE thank you to Matt Hansen & family and Tom & Betsy Kirby for providing housing and meals and a very good time for the counselors. Trinity is truly blessed to have such wonderful people who give of their time and talent to make this week possible!

Trinity and Riverside Activities during VBS

During our VBS fun, our middle school youth were able to take part in their own activity night with the Riverside staff here at the church. We raided our snack stockpiles, competed in a trivia competition, and then utilized the entire building for a thrilling game of finding our hidden camp counselors. Ask one of the students how many crosses they found in the church during our final game! We loved having Nova, Abi, Reese, and Carly join us for a fun night!

TRINITY'S SOFTBALL TEAM:

Faith on the Field

BY MICHELLE MURRAY

TRINITY'S SOFTBALL TEAM 2025

Pitch, pray and play...these are three things that make Trinity's softball team a little more unique than others. Team Coach Stephanie Johnson said, "I like having a pastor on the team because as the Home Team, he prays for the game ahead of us." She continued, "We're here to play softball but there's a bigger reason, too." Pastor Daniel Hanson, the pastor on the team, agreed, "What unites us is our faith!" An avid Cardinals fan, Hanson played baseball in his younger years and helped bring the Luther Seminary Heretics back. He also has played on different church teams throughout the years. Why participate in Trinity's softball team? "It's good to be with people in different ways—kind of 'outside the box,'" he said. "What's interesting to see is that the team is about 50/50...half have played on the softball team before and half are brand new." Besides the varied experience levels, there is a great mix of young and old. Hanson said, "Team members are in different seasons of life! It's fun to see dads and kids play together on the team." Johnson mentioned that she likes to see so many of Trinity's youth involved in the softball team. "There's lots of good fellowship, and it gets them to know other people in the church," she said.

The "very generational team" includes at least 6 Trinity youth members (in the 14-18 age group) and a couple college-aged members as well. Johnson said she loves seeing the change in people over the summer. For example, some start out pretty shy and end up being very talkative. She also enjoys seeing people cheer for each other.

Trinity has some fans in the stands who help cheer the team along as well. Parents and other family members constitute the majority of the fans...and then there's Dani Vogel, Youth Director at Trinity. She usually has snacks for the crowd, and it seems she is quite partial to cheese. Sometimes she has brought a jar of pickles. Most of all, she provides support for the team and the other fans.

For a team that (mostly) plays for fun, Trinity Softball has an underlying competitive vein. Johnson said, "You wouldn't think church softball would be competitive, but it can get heated!" Both Johnson and Hanson mentioned St. James Lutheran as great competition.

"We've only beat them once," Johnson said. Hanson nodded his head in agreement, "They're really good!" In the past years, the church leagues were separated into Alpha and Omega with Alpha being a competitive league and Omega being a "play for fun" league. Now the leagues are blended together, so fun and competition are both the names of the game.

Trinity's team is one of ten from around Mason City and North Iowa. Johnson said, "A lot of team members come back year after year." She has enjoyed being involved over the years, and is proud of designing the team's jerseys. "I like to hang out in the dugout and build relationships, getting to know people outside of church," she said. Regarding Johnson as coach, Hanson added, "She's a positive role model and an encourager for young and old!"

If Trinity members are looking for a fun way to get to know others outside of church, contact Pastor Daniel Hanson or Stephanie Johnson. They stressed, "Whatever your skill set is, we want more players!" And if you aren't interested in playing softball, your presence is requested in the cheering section. "We're always looking for more!" Johnson said.†

"I like to have fun and this is a fun competitive kind of thing. It's also a family thing—I get to play on the team with my niece, Grace Berding. Getting outside and enjoying the weather is good, too!" -Daniel Dodge

"I played softball growing up and missed it. I thought it would be fun to meet people from the church! My mom, sister and grandma come to watch...it's a big deal!" -Grace Berding

*"Baseball & softball were a big part of my life growing up and later I enjoyed coaching my daughters Kendra and Ashton's teams from Park and Rec to a travel team with Manly Heat.
