The Trinity Connection informs the members of Trinity Lutheran Church and the people of north Iowa about the church's mission, and people, helping them to grow in faith and commitment to Jesus Christ.

Friends in Christ,

As we look back on this past year at Trinity, I am grateful—for God's faithfulness and for the people who continue to live out Christ's healing love through this community. The story of 2025 is not simply about what we accomplished, but about who we are becoming as a congregation rooted in servanthood, relationships, and hope.

One of the most visible expressions of that spirit was the neighborhood Block Party in August. What began as an invitation became a joyful celebration of connection—neighbors meeting neighbors, generations coming together, laughter filling our grounds, and Trinity opening its hearts to the community around us. It was a beautiful reminder that ministry often begins with hospitality and presence, and that church is about meeting people where they are.

This year also marked a historic milestone in the life of our congregation: the fulfillment of our $4.5 million T150 project loan. This achievement reflects years of faithful stewardship and a shared commitment to Trinity's future. Launched in 2017, the T150 project has provided countless new spaces, improved heating/cooling, kitchen upgrades, our worship livestreaming technology and a large gift to Lutheran World Relief's work in Bihar, India. What a joy to burn the mortgage this fall without using a dollar of general offerings on the loan!

Guiding our work throughout 2025 were four strategic goals, each helping us listen more carefully to God's call in this new time. We began exploring alternative revenue streams to support mission, seeking creative and sustainable ways to fund ministry beyond traditional models. We continue to work at recruiting and equipping lay leaders, recognizing that, even with a wonderful staff, the church thrives when even more are empowered to lead and use their gifts.

We also spent time exploring how people are being fed at Trinity—through worship, faith formation, relationships, and care. These conversations reminded me that spiritual nourishment looks different for different people and that our calling is to build connections between people in meaningful and life-giving ways. Finally, we began exploring partnerships with area congregations, opening ourselves to new ways of being church together for the sake of God's work in North Iowa.

As we gather for Trinity's Annual Meeting, I give thanks for each person who has given their time, talents, prayers and resources to make this ministry possible. Our world is changing. Maybe faster than ever. Yet our calling to serve, welcome, receive and extend healing in Jesus' name, does not change. May the God who has brought us to this new day guide us into ever-new ways of being Servant Church together!

LENT SERIES 2026

Lent was originally a season for new converts to learn and prepare for their baptism on Easter. During that time, they would study what was central to Christianity. As we crafted this series, we asked: what are the core, foundational concepts of Jesus' life and ministry? What makes each of these good news? Can we trust that the good news is truly good, even when it challenges us? If we're being honest, we can easily distort or sanitize Jesus' teachings. Following Jesus leads to a richer, more expansive life, but it's not necessarily comfortable. We often describe Jesus' ministry as "radical" which comes from the Latin word "radicalis," meaning "root" or "ground." Therefore, the good news should bring us back to our roots, back to what grounds us: loving our neighbor, caring for the vulnerable, pursuing justice and mercy, and resting in God's unending grace.

Journey with Jesus : Lenten Devotional

Mondays during Lent | 12:00 PM | Fellowship Hall

The season of Lent is a great time to commit to spending time with God and tending our spiritual life. This Lenten Season, we invite everyone at Trinity to read Scripture together as a spiritual discipline. Using the devotional Journey with Jesus, we will read the Gospel of John together. Journal questions are provided to dig deeper and to reflect on the daily readings. We encourage you to form a group or find a friend and meet weekly (or when you can) during Lent to reflect on the readings and questions. For those interested, there will be a gathering at noon on Mondays during Lent in the Fellowship Hall to discuss and process the Scripture for the past week in community. People are encouraged to bring a lunch and to stay for whatever time their schedule allows.

NEW YEAR, NEW LEADERSHIP

BY MICHELLE MURRAY

Trinity's Church Council has a new president and president-elect, Ethan Miller and Liz Fitzgerald. These two people are such familiar faces to Trinity members and have been featured in various Connection newsletters over the years, but just in case you wanted to know more about their backgrounds and more about what the council does, read on...

ETHAN MILLER, PRESIDENT-ELECT

Ethan Miller and his wife, Becky, have been married for 13 years and have lived in Mason City since 2004. They are the parents of two daughters, Gretta (12) and Margo (9). Ethan grew up in Humboldt, IA and played baseball at Northwestern College in Orange City, IA. Currently, he is self-employed as a Mental Performance Coach, serving coaches and athletes across the United States. Becky is a middle school science teacher at Central Springs on the Nora Springs campus. She recently earned her master's degree and administrative license and is pursuing an administrative position in the near future. Both the girls are fully immersed in athletics, the arts, and "all that can be participated in!"

Ethan says he loves the family and community that Trinity brings. "Our girls were baptized here and this is our home. The relationships we have formed at Trinity and in our time at Mason City is very special and uncommon from most places." He continued, "Trinity has been our church home for nearly 15 years. My wife Becky and I have served on various committees over the years, and after being asked to serve on the church council 3 years ago, I was eager to serve in a different capacity."

Just in case YOU are ever asked to serve on the church council and wonder what it entails, here is Ethan's explanation: "The Trinity Lutheran Church Council stewards the mission, health, and direction of the church, making sure that it stays faithful, organized, and effective. The council is a part of the overall 'big picture' work of the church, not just the day-to-day operations of the church. The decisions that we make are based upon the information provided from our various committee leads, and in accordance with our pastoral leadership, we come to a conclusion for what needs to be done. Essentially, we are in a position as representatives of the congregation to ensure that our mission as a church is being fulfilled."

He added, "As council members, we serve the congregation and the thoughts and/or ideas that members may have. We are open to communication and anything that is brought to us. We will listen, and at the least, point our members in the right direction towards next steps."

ETHAN MILLER (RIGHT) AND FAMILY

Ethan's new role as council president includes "meetings with pastoral staff, leading council meetings, and many other areas that I am certain I'm missing and others that will come my way; however, I'm open to it all and honored to be in this position to serve our congregation and the mission we hold at Trinity."

His goals for the next couple years at Trinity include "improving as a church...especially in the momentum that we have going at Trinity," he said. "We have SO MANY positives taking place within our walls and beyond. Understanding the ways that we can improve and to seek out best practices within the ever-changing scope of the church, is something I am very passionate about."

LIZ FITZGERALD, PRESIDENT-ELECT

Liz Fitzgerald was born and raised here in Mason City. She was also baptized and confirmed here at Trinity. She's the mother of four and grandmother of six. Her four children (Halena, Holdyn, Hudson, and Sophia) were also baptized and confirmed at Trinity. Liz enjoys spending time with her family and reading (mostly assigned course readings/textbooks right now, but also the occasional mystery, true crime, or romance book). Her favorite genres of music are movie scores and classical renditions of popular music. In her work life, Liz serves as the Director of the Center for Teaching and Learning at Purdue University Global. Purdue Global is an online element of Purdue University in West Lafayette, Indiana. She has been with the university for almost 22 years, starting with the organization when it was Hamilton College located here in Mason City. She explains, "In my current role, I support just under 3,000 faculty and staff with training and support focusing on academic processes, teaching and learning strategies, and academic technology. I am also taking classes to earn my Doctor of Education in Leadership and Innovation degree. My goal is to graduate in the Spring of 2027."

Since Liz has been a life-long member at Trinity, she "sincerely appreciates the many ways that this church has and continues to show up for me and others." This is one of the reasons she wanted to be a part of the council. She wanted to "give back to a community that has served as a foundational and positive influence" not only in her life but also in her family's.

Her definition of church council consists of the following: "The council provides strategic leadership for our church. We work to set vision, establish and maintain policies, oversee finances, manage property, and ensure accountability to the congregation. The council serves as stewards for our mission and resources. We focus on strategic planning, approving budgets, and providing support and oversight to the pastoral team."

Of course, the council plays a large part in Trinity's faith story. Liz says that the church council not only helps to "provide guidance and direction for the church, but also works to serve the interests of the congregation and ensures that the church community acts with care and responsibility in the work that we have been entrusted to carry out."

Since the council works to serve the needs and interests of the congregation, Liz stresses that "members should feel free to reach out to any council member to share ideas, ask questions, or bring up concerns. If anyone is unsure of who the council members are, church leaders are listed on the church website (TRINITY-MC.ORG) under the "About" menu found at the top of the homepage."

Her new role as president-elect will allow Liz to work with and support the council president and attend monthly council meetings. This role also assists the personnel committee. Liz said, "Serving as president-elect for one year provides the opportunity to learn from the current council leadership in preparation for serving as the council president the following year." Her goals in her new role are: "to support the council and congregation in achieving our strategic initiatives, to ensure church leaders actively see, hear, and support the congregation, and to continually seek opportunities to meet the needs of those we serve, both within and beyond our church community as directed by the church mission and vision."

Welcome, Ethan and Liz, to your new roles on church council!

If you'd like to learn more about serving on one of Trinity's committees or cabinets, please contact the church office at 641-423-0536! †

Lunch & Learn - Community Hygiene Pantry

Thursday, February 26, 2026

12:00 PM | Fellowship Hall

St. John's Episcopal Church created a hygiene pantry about ten years ago to give the dignity of being clean to those in need of assistance with no questions asked. Those on limited incomes to cover food and medications often have nothing left over for hygiene products. Bags of supplies are assembled that generally include toothpaste, toothbrush, dish soap, laundry soap, shampoo, soap, deodorant, and toilet paper. Upon request, they also include feminine hygiene products, diapers, wipes, and children's products. The Women's Cabinet at Trinity Lutheran Church has partnered with St. John's Episcopal Church by collecting donations that are then given to the Hygiene Pantry at St. John's. Other donations come from area churches and private citizens who want to support the ministry. Our guest speaker is Sue Stone, Parish Administrator at St. John's Episcopal Church. She will be sharing stories of the lives that have been touched by the hygiene pantry over the years. A light lunch of soup and sandwich will be provided by Trinity's Women's Cabinet for a free-will donation. Please call Trinity Church to get a head count for lunch 423-0536.
